LUISANNA GONZALEZ
QUATTRINI

Luisanna Gonzalez Quattrini (1972, Lima, Peru) currently lives and works in Basel, Switzerland. She studied Fine Arts in Lima, Florence and Geneva where she graduated at HEAD in 2005. Luisanna paints visions of a timeless world, which tell the truths of today. But beneath the shimmer of fresh colors, these truths conceal some disconcerting quirks. The artist seems to cultivate a childhood of the gaze that reveals the repressed of adults. In her canvases, innocence competes with regression, reasons seem to be governed by bodies, instincts dominate urbanity; in his subjects as in matter itself, the fluids control the masses. Between mountains of impasto and liquid expanses, her works are ambivalent: they allow both a symbolic reading - revealing a relationship with the physical world free from all taboos - as a more fundamental reflection on the constituents of painting.

She has exhibited at Musée des Beaux-Arts La Chaux-de-Fonds, winter 2018-19, MAMCO Musée d'art contemporain de Genève, winter 2015-16. She won the Swiss Federal Art Prize 2007, and the Theodor Strawinsky Art Prize 2005. She is part of the private collections of Musée des Beaux-Arts La Chaux-de-Fonds, 2019, Credit Suisse 2009, Mamco Genève, 2006, as well as other private collections of Europe and the Americas.
